

PUBLIC PROCUREMENT LAW SYMPOSIUM

9 MAY 2018, Law Faculty Building, Stellenbosch University

PROGRAMME

8:30 Registration & coffee

9:00 Session 1: Development Aid Procurement & the UNGPs on Business & Human Rights: challenges and opportunities to move forward 'the new frontier of BUYING JUSTICE'.

Annamaria la Chimia,

Associate Professor, School of Law, University of Nottingham

9:45 Session 2: Public Procurement contracts as smart contracts: challenges and opportunities

Sope Williams-Elegbe

Professor, Department of Mercantile Law, Stellenbosch University

10:30 Coffee

11:00 Session 3: Breach of SOC board members' fiduciary duties in the context of public procurement

Peter Volmink

Transnet Executive Manager: Governance, Supply Chain

11:45 Session 4: Framework agreements, transversal procurement and the stipulatio alteri

Geo Quinot, Vice Dean & Professor, Department of Public Law, Stellenbosch University

12:30 Close & light lunch

Attendance is free and open to anyone interested in public procurement law, but seats are limited and it is thus essential to book a seat by sending an email to Kyle Jordaan at kylej@sun.ac.za.

More information and directions to the venue are available online at www.africanprocurementlaw.org

The African Procurement Law Unit, APLU, is a research unit based in the Law Faculty of Stellenbosch University. It maintains a continental footprint by means of researchers associated with the Unit based in a number of African countries and beyond, all working on issues relating to procurement law in Africa. APLU's mission is to strengthening public procurement systems in Africa through research, training and establishing networks of expertise on the African continent and beyond.